DRY NICE

Booze-free beverages can get mighty boring, which is why we're warming up to Twelve, a cool new mocktail mixed up by chefs David Burke and Alfred Portale. This sophisticated, sparkling potion complements summery meals perfectly. Its organic green, black, and white tea base is packed with healthy antioxidants, rounded out with not-too-sweet white grape, lemon, peach, and pineapple juices. An herb blend adds subtle flavor notes. Just 60 calories and 15 g. carbs per 8 oz. serving. Available at Wegman's, D'Agostino's, Whole Foods, and other markets. $7.99.
